

Catch-it Kebabs Biography

Formed in April 2001, Catch-It Kebabs have built a strong live following through regular gigging around the Yorkshire area. They have shared stages with many illustrious names from the UK & international ska scenes such as The Toasters, King Django, The Slackers, Desa (USA), Rude Bones (Japan), Lightyear, King Prawn, Pama International, Howard's Alias, No Comply, Zen Baseballbat, The Splitters & Smoke Like A Fish.

Having developed the skill of entrancing audiences with a frantic live stage show & super catchy songs, word of the Kebabs began to spread fast within the UK ska scene. April 2004 saw the band make the jump to national recognition with the release of their debut full-length album, "Skankin' Sausages" on Do The Dog Music, backed by a full UK tour.

Their 9 piece outfit consists of 2 vocalists, a rhythm section of drums, bass, guitar & keyboards, and a 4 piece brass section. The Catch-It Kebabs' sound ranges from blazing ska/punk & peppy 2 tone to surging 3rd wave ska & sassy swingcore. Bringing to mind a rampant fusion of Voodoo Glow Skulls, The Porkers, The Pietasters, Cherry Poppin Daddies & The Scofflaws.

Their big, bold, brassy melodies & highly contagious live swagger look set to garner this Barnsley crew many more fans across the UK & global ska scenes!

www.catch-it-kebabs.com